Portland, Me., April 14.—Fred Jordan,

There is more Catarch in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the hast fow years was anproased to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remades, and by constanting to the a country falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proved catarch to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional cure on the drops to a teaspeceful. It acts directly on the blood and murgous surfaces of the system.
